

The Kentuckian.

Established 1879. Vol. XLI—No. 12

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, MAY, 14, 1919.

Small Doses

CORRECT.

The school teacher was asking the class a few questions. "Now, how do the bees dispose of their honey?" he inquired. "They sell it," announced the clever boy of the class.—Answers, London.

Secretary Daniels has sailed from West. We wish him success.

A loose horse collided with a Ford automobile at Sebree and flying glass injured five people.

The Huns are now cussing Wilson and the more they cuss him the better his own people will like him.

Borah threatens to quit the Republican party, but the patriotic part of the party has already quit him.

It is estimated that it will take three weeks to crank up the Ford trial and two months to try it out.

An Atlanta man who put his chickens in a "burglar proof coop," lost coop and all the first night he tried it.

The Supreme Court of New York is to decide whether a bagpipe makes music or noise. Neighbors fell out over one and went to law.

The British have identified and taken to London tower the German U-boat captain who made a practice of sinking hospital ships.

On another page will be found the full text of the Versailles treaty that Germany must sign or resume fighting without an army.

President Wilson has proclaimed the period from June 8 to June 14 Boy Scout week, for the purpose of extending the Boy Scout work.

Edmondson county, generally regarded as the jumping off place, will set the example of building 14 miles of asphalt highway at a cost of $200,000.

Now that blackberry winter is behind us, we may prepare to enter into a scientific investigation of the puzzling fact that a green blackberry is always red.

The chairman of the Republican Convention ought by all means to be a judge. He will have nothing to do but issue peremptory instruction to nominate the victims.

Editor R. L. Yearblood, of the Clinton Gazette and Mayor Jno. B. Evans had a fight over a criticism of the mayor's management of the city water plant. There were separated before blood was drawn.

Mrs. Harrison No. 2 has forced a postponement of Gov. Burton Harris' marriage to pretty Betty Wrenmore of California. How long the cruel judge will keep them waiting is not known.

Dewey Ford, of Stamford, Conn., a returned soldier just married was shining up his army revolver when his bride came in and playfully tickled him. He jumped, the pistol went off and the bullet lodged in the bride's leg.

The next campaign is to raise $15,000,000 for the organization work of the Salvation Army. As in the case of the Red Cross this is to be a donation, not an investment—a donation to a worthy and patriotic band of war workers.

Von Jagow has written a book in which he says that the war was started upon reports by subordinate officers that German territory had been invaded by France and without any attempt to investigate the facts, hostilities were started.

Three milk dealers of Nashville are on trial for "putting water in their buttermilk." If the water was clean and pure and free from germs, why are the dealers to be given such unpleasant notoriety? Have they done anything unusual for Nashville?

Elizabeth Wrenmore, on 18-year-old California school girl, swears she will marry Gov. Burton Harrison, aged 45 and both a grass and sod widower, in spite of mama's protest. And after seeing her picture in the paper, bets are two to one on Betty.

Ebert swears Germany will not sign. Orlando refuses to be satisfied with Italy's share. Foch threatens to resign because France is left unprotected and Borah will quit the Republican party if it helps to satisfy the treaty. So there you are. You can't please 'em all.

Henry Ford's million dollar libel suit against the Chicago Tribune for calling him an anarchist is 1916 is on trial at Mt. Clemens, Mich. With millions of money on both sides, the case promises to be a sure enough lawsuit, and the poor lawyers are worried to death over it.

LINING UP FOR GOVERNOR

FOUR DEMOCRATS AND MAYBE FIVE SEEK HONOR OF DEFEATING MORROW.

SITUATION STILL UNSETTLED

Black and Rhea Both To Make Opening Speeches On Next Saturday.

Louisville, Ky., May 13.—Within the next thirty days, in the opinion of students of Kentucky politics, and perhaps sooner, one may form a pretty accurate opinion as to who is going to win the Democratic nomination for Governor. By this time next week, perhaps, all the candidates will have delivered their opening speeches and then they will be up for discussion by the voters. Col. H. H. Denhardt, of Bowling Green, and Judge John D. Carroll, of Newcastle, already have opened their campaigns formally, and Thomas S. Rhea, of Russellville, and Lieut. Governor Jas. D. Black will make their initial campaign speeches Saturday, Mr. Rhea at Frankfort, and the Lieutenant Governor at Richmond.

By that time perhaps, Lieut. Gov. Black will have become Governor, as Gov. Stanley is scheduled to leave shortly for Washington in order that he may take up his duties as United States Senator with the opening of the extra session of Congress.

In the meantime there is a strong probability that Col. S. M. Wilson, of Lexington, may enter the contest on a platform differing from the others on prohibition and woman suffrage.

SIR BARTON WON KY. DERBY

Billy Kelly, From Same Stable, Finishes Second; Favorite Is Tenth.

Louisville, Ky., May 10.—Sir Barton won the forty-fifth Kentucky Derby over a muddy track at Churchill Downs Saturday evening, gaining for his owner $20,825. The time was 2:09 4-5.

Billy Kelly, from the same stable as Sir Barton, both owned by Commander J. K. L. Ross, of Canada, finished second, and Under Fire finished third.

Vulcanite finished fourth, while other good contenders finished a good distance back.

Eternal, J. W. McClelland's horse, which was the public choice, ended in tenth place, while Vendex came under the wire last.

More than 50,000 people, the largest crowd in the history of the track, were present to see the race.

The Derby summary follows: One and one-quarter miles. The Kentucky Derby; $20,000 added. For three-year-olds; allowances. Start good. Won easily; second and third handily. Went to post 5:10. At post 5 minutes. Winner, J. K. L. Ross' ch. c., Star Shoot—Lady Sterling. Trained by H. G. Bedwell.

Value to winner, $20,825; $2,500 to second; $1,000 to third. The horses finished as follows: Sir Barton, first; Billy Kelly, second; Under Fire, third; Vulcanite, fourth; Senning's Park, fifth; Be Frank, sixth; Sailor, seventh; St. Bernard, eighth; Regalo, ninth; Eternal, tenth; Frogtown, eleventh; Vendex, twelfth.

Two-dollar Mutuels Paid—Ross enary (Sir Barton and Billy Kelly), straight, $7.20; place, $6.70; show, $6. Under Fire, show, $10. Sir Barton moved into the lead at once and, well handled, was restrained until reaching the stretch, where he was hustled some and held Billy Kelly safe in last eighth. Bill Kelly held to his task well, was under restraint in early stages and finished gamely when urged, but was not good enough for winner. Under Fire gained steadily from a slow beginning and finished gamely. Vulcanite went well. Eternal was done for after going three-quarters. Regalo went disappointingly. Denning's Park curled in the stretch.

Firm Is Not Criticized.

Lexington, Ky., May 6.—Silas B. Mason, of the contracting firm of Mason & Hanger, today said the investigation of costs of construction of the Old Hickory powder plant at Nashville did not affect his firm and that it had not been subjected to criticism of government officials.

GRAVE OF ONE VICTIM OF THE HUNS

Two Canadian soldiers at the grave of Mme. Delabre Celmie, ruthlessly murdered by the invading Germans in 1914.

REVIVAL HAS BEGUN

VIOLETTE-HOHGAT MEETING AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH NOW UNDERWAY.

SEVEN ADDITIONS SO FAR

Meeting Will Continue For Two Weeks With Evening Services.

Began last Sunday. Dr. E. E. Violette, of Kansas City, Mo., and Prof. C. H. Hohgatt, Monticello, Ill., are leading the Ninth Street Christian Church in a very enthusiastic and inspiring revival meeting. Two very large audiences greeted the evangelist last Sunday, and last night the capacity of the auditorium was taxed to the extreme.

The sermon on the "Unpardonable Sin" by Dr. Violette last night was a clear, forceful and convincing discussion of this very interesting theme. Prof. Hohgatt who comes to assume the Superintendency of the Religious Education and Music in the Ninth Street Christian Church, is captivating his hearers with splendid tenor solos. This church is extremely fortunate in securing the services of Prof. Hohgatt, and there is no doubt but what the music of the Ninth St. church throughout the year will be of the highest type that can be found anywhere. A large chorus is being organized, improvements being made in the Choir loft, and the piano and pipe organ are both being used in the musical services.

There have been seven additions, so far, at the first three services, and the meeting has had a most auspicious beginning. Dr. Violette is one of the most eloquent evangelists that has ever visited our city, and his terse style and clean cut speech is indeed refreshing and attractive. His sermons are brief, bright and practically to the point. Everyone who has heard him is loud in his praise for this distinguished evangelist. The meeting will continue for two weeks more.

FLYERS TAKE PRECAUTIONS

America's Hydro-Airplanes to Carry Six Men and Have Extra Propellers.

Trepassey, N. F., May 13.—The American Navy's hydro-airplanes will set out on their trans-Atlantic flight carrying, if possible, crews of six men instead of five, as originally planned, and with extra propellers aboard. Commander John H. Towers, chief of the expedition, announced in a statement detailing precautionary measures adopted to insure, as far as possible, completion of the projected non-stop cruise to the Azores.

MR. ANDERSON PROMISES AID

Knoxville Millionaire Merchant Interested in The West Side Baptist Church.

Mr. Jas. H. Anderson, of Knoxville, spent Sunday in the city and attended services at both of the Baptist churches. In the morning he briefly addressed the Men's Bible Class of the First Church Sunday School and in the evening spoke at the Second Church on "Stewardship." In the course of his remarks he said that he had ceased to be a mere tither but was now giving all he made to the Lord and had provided in his will that all future accumulations should be given to the Lord. That he had been blest with enough for all his needs and instead of retiring he would work on for the Lord. He announced his intention to help the Second Church erect their new building. The church was organized a few years ago from the First Church and is to be helped materially by the First Church members. Mr. Anderson's voluntary proffer of aid was received with much satisfaction.

DEMONSTRATION IN COOKING

At Methodist Church By Mrs. Martha Potter, of Bowling Green, Tuesday Afternoon

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Methodist church, Mrs. Martha N. Potter, of Bowling Green gave an interesting and instructive lecture and demonstration to the ladies of Hopkinsville and Christian county on various methods of cooking.

The cooking demonstration was held in the kitchen of the Methodist church and proved highly beneficial to the housekeepers who attended. This is the second of a series of six lectures that are being given throughout the various counties in Kentucky on the subjects of general interest and instruction to housekeepers. These lectures are sent out by the State Agricultural Board thru every community, town and city and are giving demonstrations in the most up-to-date methods of cooking, canning, preserving and other domestic arts.

The first lecture of this series given several weeks ago dealt with the preservation and value of food. A demonstration in fireless cooking will be held later on in the series.

The Louisville post calls attention to the fact that Sherman and LaFollette were prominent enough but didn't have bombs sent to them. Nor did Borah and Reed.

Mothers' Day.

Sunday was Mothers' Day and it was observed throughout the city. Hundreds of red and white roses were worn in honor of the living and dead mothers. Touching tributes were paid to the memory of mother by the pastors of the various churches.

REPUBLICAN SLATE READY

HAND-PICKED TICKET FOR THE CONVENTION AT LEXINGTON TODAY

E. P. MORROW FOR GOVERNOR

Christian County Not Recognized In The List of Nominees, However.

Louisville, Ky., May 13.—Kentucky Republican leaders seemingly have no fear of creating soreness within their ranks by providing a hand-picked ticket for the ballot this fall. When they meet in convention at Lexington today they will recommend a candidate for every State office to be filled in November. They contend that such action on their part will result in less dissatisfaction in the long run than were they to keep hands off and leave it up to the best man to win Republican nominations in the August primary.

To be sure, the Republicans will have to go through the form of nominating a ticket through the primary method in August, as the Kentucky law requires this, but the real work will be done in Lexington on Wednesday. It is doubtful if there will be a single contest for the Republican nominations in August.

Ticket To Be Recommended. For Governor, Edwin P. Morrow; Lieutenant Governor, S. Thurston Ballard; Auditor, John J. Craig, Covington; Treasurer, James Wallace, Irvine; Secretary of State, J. M. Perkins, Frankfort; Commissioner of Agriculture, W. C. Hanna, Shelbyville; State Superintendent of Public Instruction, R. P. Green, Bowling Green and Attorney General, Sawyer Smith, Barbourville.

Unless present plans are changed at the eleventh hour, the convention at Lexington today will recommend for places on the Republican ballot this fall the following:

RICKENBACKER HERO OF AIR

Told His Thrilling Narrative of Airplane Fighting at Tabernacle Friday Night.

Friday night at the Tabernacle the people of Hopkinsville were treated to one of the best lectures ever heard in this city. Those who failed to hear Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker missed one of the most entertaining of narratives. He told in a modest and unassuming manner of his deeds on the Western Front, but was most elaborate in his praise of his comrades who helped drive the Huns from the air. Rarely did he mention himself except in connection with some others who made their name a byword throughout the world by their bravery.

His subject "The Arena of the Sky," was one which gave him ample room to pay tribute to friend and foe alike.

His vivid accounts of those heroes who fought and died thousands of feet above the ground ranged from humor to tragedy. He told the story of Lieut. Smythe who went up with him to an altitude of 22,000 feet, where the temperature was 40 degrees below zero and who said on landing, "Rick, I am so cold that I'm afraid to smile for fear that I might crack. I don't know how high we were in miles, but I'll swear we were high enough so I saw the sunrise for day after tomorrow."

The story of Lieut. Wilber White, who charged an enemy plane and went down to death with the Hun, on the eve of the day he was to have gone home on leave, that a less experienced comrade might escape, created a deep impression of the audience.

At the conclusion of the lecture, Capt. Rickenbacker showed a series of moving pictures of air battles that were the best ever seen here.

TWO CHANGES IN BUSINESS CIRCLES

Ralph Lewis has resigned his position as secretary-treasurer of Frankel's Busy Store and will devote his entire time and attention to the rapidly growing business of the Duffer-Lewis Motor Co.

In turn S. F. Bowles has resigned his position with the Planters' Bank & Trust Co. and has succeeded Mr. Lewis at Frankel's.

STOCK SALE AT FAIRGROUNDS

CAMPBELL-CRAWLEY SALE IS A BIG SUCCESS—OVER 600 HEAD SOLD

TOP PRICES WERE REALIZED

Big Crowd On Hand And Receipts Are $12,689.25—Blooded Stock Outsold The Scrubs.

Despite the threatening rain, the Campbell-Crawley Stock Sale held at the fair grounds Saturday was a great success. The weather kept down the size of the crowd and the offering of stock but over 600 head of cattle, sheep and hogs were sold for a total price of $12,689.25.

Top prices were brought by all the stock offered but the very great difference between that brought by the high grade stock and the indifferent was the cause of much talk among stock men. These prophesied that as a result of such sales, in a few years Christian county will be producing none but the highest grades of cattle, sheep and hogs.

Two of the best of auctioneers were on hand in Messrs. Luckett, of Princeton and J. T. Watson, of this city. No time was lost. As soon as one lot of stock were sold another was offered. The bidding started at 11:30 and the sale was over by 3:30. Dinner was served on the ground by a committee of ladies.

One of the best sales of hogs was a sow and six pigs which were sold to Jenins & Yates, St. Louis commission men, for $151.

A flock of 95 sheep, 57 old sheep and 38 lambs, sold for $1,140 in the sale. These sheep were consigned from Trigg county and the owner sold them after getting to town with them to G. C. Courtney, who in turn sold them in the sale and realized a handsome profit by his venture.

Another profit-making trade was shown when Hunter Moss sold seven shoats before the sale to Frank Clark for $50. Mr. Clark in turn sold them for a profit to Mr. Dougherty. Mr. Dougherty made the best profit of all for in the sale they brought him $98.

The best sale of cattle was the Steve Williams offering, of Pembroke. Mr. Williams offered 20 head and fat cows sold as high as $100 and steers as high as $90.

There were many other specially good sales made. In fact the entire sale was better than had been expected.

SCOTCH BAND HERE MONDAY

Comes Here Under Auspices of Local Chapter of Order of Eastern Star.

On Monday afternoon and night, under the auspices of the Carrie Hart Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, the Royal Scotch Highlanders Kilty Band, will give two performances. The matinee will be at 2:30 and the night performance at 8 o'clock.

The opportunity to hear this famous band will be a rare treat to the people of this region.

BLACK ON TRIAL

Lieutenant Governor James D. Black will next Saturday become the governor of Kentucky to serve until next December. Gov. Black is a gentleman of high character, refinement and good breeding. He is a man of dignity and has a full sense of the responsibility that will rest upon him as the chief executive of a great commonwealth. In that position we are sure he will acquit himself with honor. He is of a kindly and gentlemanly temperament, but will not be led by his emotions or through political or personal influence into an indiscriminate use of the pardoning power. He will probably have few appointments to make, but we judge that he will select only high class men and will enter into no trades or deals with long discredited office-seeking politicians. Gov. Black is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor and the manner in which he discharges the duties of the executive office the next three months may have much to do with determining that race.—Owensboro Messenger.